PROCARE AMBULANCE OF MARYLAND, INC. GRANTED CERTIFICATE OF NEED FOR DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

BALTIMORE, MD – October 7, 2013 – Procure Ambulance of Maryland, Inc., a full-service commercial ambulance and wheelchair van transportation company, announced today that it has received a Certificate of Need from the District of Columbia State Health Planning and Development Agency.

Procure pursued a Certificate of Need after receiving notification that it had been selected by the Prince George's County Medical Assistance (PGMA) program as the sole provider for non-emergency ambulatory transports from Maryland to Washington, D.C.

"We are thrilled to be granted this Certificate of Need for the District of Columbia. Not only will we be able to continue our services in Prince George's County, but this allows us to work with new clients and healthcare professionals." stated Debbie Ailiff, President and CEO of the company. "Being able to provide quality ambulance transportation while giving point to point service in Washington, D.C. is a wonderful opportunity for us."

The company's Certificate is valid through September 30, 2014.
